

The third AAC race took place last weekend from 23. - 24.7. For the first time the event was held in the serbian city Novi Sad. The race was visited well by about 50 drivers. Some races on sunday were broadcast on TV live from Novi Sad city beach. An impressive fireshow and bubbles made the award ceremony unique in AAC history.

Hot Products Junior Ski Stock

The jetski-youngsters finished both races with exact the same results. Terezie Prochazkova, the cute little czech, won both runs followed by the hungarians Barnabas Szabo and Alex-Bendeguz D'Ess. Terezie and Barnabas are also leading the overall ranking. Thomas Havlin (CZE), twice on fourth place, made it to overall third position because Saif al Falasi from Dubai couldn't race injured.

Expert Ski Ladies

Pija Sumer (SLO), leading the European championship, finished twice unbeaten and won first place overall. Clearly second was only 13 year old Terezie Prochazkova (CZE). Third place was hard-fought between the Austrian Martina Dusswald and Joanna Borgström from Sweden. Finally both finished equal on points. Overall lead remains with Terezie, followed by Pija who now is only 13 points behind. The Italian title contender Marta Sorrentino, who got injured in Weitenegg, was not able to defend second place.

JetSkiZone Pro Am Freestyle

Again the Slovenian brothers Rok and Nac Florjancic improved their skills. Together with Albert van Heijningen from the Netherlands they delighted the spectators with sensational tricks. At the end of the day Rok managed to win with eight backflips in a row and his incredible "one handed-and one-footed Backflip" followed by his brother Nac. Nevertheless Albert van Heijningen is leading overall due to his constant output during the last AAC races.

Wave Pro Ski G.P.

The supreme discipline was strongly embattled that weekend. Tomaz Kete (SLO) scored 60 points just ahead of the Italian Michele Napoli and Markus Erlach (AUT). After technical troubles during the first run, the young Austrian Kevin Reiterer victoriously finished the second one. Napoli, Erlach and Kete were positioned second, third and fourth. Finally Michele "Mamio" Napoli stood on top of winners' podium but the Slovenian Kete and then the Austrian Erlach were close behind.

After the GP-races the overall ranking remains thrillingly likewise: Reiterer 312, Kete 310, Erlach 244 and Napoli 225.

Pro AM Runabout GP

The strongest class was clearly won by the Hungarian György Kasza on his Yamaha with Seadoo motor. Although his compatriot Gergő Jaranyi had bad starts he made it to second place. Mario Lamy from Slovakia, Tomas Pazler from Czech Republic and Simon Ferenc from Hungary fought for third place. Only 4 points are in-between these racers. At the end of the race Simon was the lucky one and so he completed the Hungarian winners' podium. Again the overall ranking is exciting: György only two points ahead of Lamy.

All drivers enjoy a little break until the next race takes place at the end of August (27. - 28.08.2011) in Gersekarat (Hungary). www.jetpark.hu

Several AAC racer also participate at the European Championship in Belgium from 12. - 14. August 2011.

